RATES OF ADVERTISING. spaper proprietors generally, and especially of this ity, under the usages and regulations heretofore prevailing are called upon to perform more labor without remanera-tion, than any other class of community. The gratuitous D publication of charity and religious advertisement, and com-munications, tributes of respect, oblituaries, &c., &c., which can only be inserted at a heavy cost to the proprietor, imposes upon them a burden so onerous, that they feel called apon, in self-defence, to check the abuse, by making such publications a charge, to some extent at least, upon the par-ties more mmediately interested. In this they are but fol-lowing the example of the press in other cities, impelled by a sense of its intrinsic propriety, and imperative duty to themselves. The subscribers have, therefore, united together in a mutual agreement, upon the following specified terms.
